

Admissions

Notification of Admission

Applicants are notified of decisions regarding the acceptance or denial of their application for admissions via mail. Because Albertus Magnus College utilizes a system of rolling admission, students are notified of the decision on a continual basis.