

Career and Professional Development

On-Campus Recruiting

Local, statewide, and national companies participate in on-campus and virtual recruiting activities through the Office of Career & Professional Development to directly connect students with employers seeking to fill open positions and internships in many fields. Activities include career fairs and information sessions.