The Albertus Community

Albertus Magnus College stresses excellence, access and innovation in higher education. Welcoming students of all races, genders, creeds, and countries of national origin, the College has a tradition of designing specially-tailored programs for students at different stages of their post-secondary education. Albertus Magnus offers academic programs in on-ground, blended, flex, and online formats at undergraduate and graduate levels that are designed to meet the specific needs of discrete groups of learners. Each program embodies the College's commitment to promoting lifelong learning by providing an education that enables students to pursue truth in all its dimensions that is also practical in its application.

The Albertus Magnus College Traditional Undergraduate Program is a semester-based undergraduate experience at our New Haven campus. Assisting students to develop insight into the world and their place in it, the Traditional Undergraduate Program stresses the Liberal Arts as a foundation for the skills, knowledge, and dispositions needed to build meaningful lives and careers. Featuring small class sizes, personalized attention from highly qualified faculty who are masters of their disciplines and the craft of teaching, the Program offers thirty-four majors in the Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business and Education.

The Adult Degree Program is designed specifically to meet the needs of the adult learner at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The program features a flexible scheduling system that permits students to attend on either a full or part-time basis. Innovative approaches to adult learning combine the convenience of online instruction with the personalized classroom attention that is a hallmark of the Albertus experience.
