Undergraduate Programs Overview

The Traditional Undergraduate Program

The Albertus Magnus College Traditional Undergraduate Program is a semester-based undergraduate experience at our New Haven campus. Assisting students to develop insight into the world and their place in it, the Traditional Undergraduate Program stresses the Liberal Arts as a foundation for the skills, knowledge, and dispositions needed to build meaningful lives and careers. Featuring small class sizes, personalized attention from highly qualified faculty who are masters of their disciplines and the craft of teaching, the Program offers over thirty majors in the Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business and Education.

The Adult Undergraduate Program

Adult learners may enroll full-time or part-time in the Adult Degree Program, which offers a wide array of Liberal Arts and professional degrees. Students consult with their academic advisor in selecting courses and planning an individualized program of study. Full-time students typically take two courses per eight-week session. The Adult Degree Program offers the following undergraduate degrees: Associate of Arts, Associate of Science in Business Management, Associate of Science in Criminal Justice, Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science.
