

Academic Policies and Regulations: Registration, Grading and Cumulative Performance

Honor Societies

Alpha Phi Sigma

Alpha Phi Sigma is the national honor society for criminal justice. It recognizes students who demonstrate academic excellence in the field of criminal justice and law. Eligible students must have a minimum 3.0 GPA, hold sophomore status, and rank in the top 10% of their class.

Alpha Sigma Lambda

Alpha Sigma Lambda is the nation's oldest and largest honor society for adult learners, recognizing those who achieve academic excellence while balancing work and family commitments. The Albertus chapter honors graduating seniors in the Adult Degree Program with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.20. Each year, approximately 30 students, typically the top 10% of the graduating class, are inducted.

Kappa Gamma Pi

Kappa Gamma Pi is the national Catholic college graduate honor society. Founded in 1926, it honors students who have demonstrated both academic excellence and leadership in service. Members commit to continuing their dedication to scholarship, leadership, and service beyond graduation.
