

Admissions

Notification of Admission

Albertus Magnus College utilizes a system of rolling admission; as such, students may apply throughout the year. Semesters typically begin in mid-January and late August. An application is reviewed when all relevant materials have arrived and the students are notified of the decision on a continual basis.