NC-SARA Student Complaint Process

Albertus Magnus College has been approved to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). A number of U.S. states and territories have entered into a voluntary agreement called the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA) that establishes one set of national standards and regulations for offering certain out-of-state activities.

The State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (SARA) aims to improve the educational experience for out-of-state distance education students by ensuring consumer protection and promoting high standards of accountability and transparency among institutions. Overall, SARA enhances the educational experience for out-of-state distance education students by providing a structured approach to consumer protection and ensuring that institutions maintain high standards of accountability and transparency.

Under NC-SARA rules, students have the right to lodge a complaint or grievance if that student's experience in an online program is not what they anticipate. Student complaints relating to consumer protection laws offered under the terms and conditions of the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA) must first be filed with the college to seek resolution. SARA consumer protection provisions require the College, through its SARA State Portal Entity, to investigate and resolve allegations of dishonest or fraudulent activity, including the provision of false or misleading information.

Students have two years to submit a SARA-related complaint. SARA policies do not cover complaints related to grades and student conduct issues and are not governed by this distance education complaint process. All student complaints must be filed with the State of Connecticut Department of Higher Education, Office of Academic Affairs at:
